

Somerville Nonprofit Support Program

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Somerville Nonprofit Support Program (S-NSP) was created as a response to the economic hardships faced by nonprofit organizations during the COVID-19 pandemic and its enduring impacts on local non-profits. The City of Somerville will administer the funding for this program, which is made available by the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA). The primary objective of the program is to provide financial support to nonprofit organizations, regardless of their size, that have been operating on or before March 16, 2020, with awards up to $25,000, depending on their gross receipts and the negative economic impact that they have experienced. While nonprofit organizations physically located in Somerville will be given preference, this program is available to all nonprofit organizations that serve Somerville residents. The funding is intended to enhance or expand services to Somerville constituents in response to COVID-19 and assist nonprofits in adjusting to the direct and indirect challenges resulting from the pandemic.
